

Competition should sort out this issue rather being driven by private interests. I use satellite radio because regular commercial radio is unwilling to service my area! Now they want to limit my choices even further.